

Cookies

This site uses cookies – small text files that are placed on your machine to help the site provide a better user experience. In general, cookies are used to retain user preferences, store information for things like shopping baskets, and provide anonymised tracking data to third party applications like Google Analytics. As a rule, cookies will make your browsing experience better. However, you may prefer to disable cookies on this site and on others. The most effective way to do this is to disable cookies in your browser. We suggest consulting the Help section of your browser or taking a look at the About Cookies website which offers guidance for all modern browsers.

Privacy policy

OmniVersal believes your privacy is important. Even though most of the information on this site is available without personal details being provided, it is possible that the user may be asked to provide personal information. This information shall only be used in the context of marketing objectives (e.g. customer management, staying up-to-date about our activities, etc.). The user may object to the use of their data for direct marketing, free of charge and via a simple request. He must contact info@omniversal.com. Personal details shall not be passed onto third parties. Pursuant to the data protection act of 08/12/1992, the user has a legal right to peruse and possibly correct their personal details. As long as you have proof of ID (copy of ID card), you can submit a written, dated and signed request to: OmniVersal, 1209 MOUNTAIN ROAD PL NE ALBUQUERQUE, NM 87110 or info@theomniversal.com to obtain a free, written statement of your personal details. If necessary, you may also request that any incorrect, incomplete or irrelevant details are corrected.

OmniVersal can gather anonymous or aggregated data of a non-personal nature, such as browser type or IP-address, the operating system that you use or the domain name of the website that sent you to the omniversal.com site, or whereby you leave the site. This allows us to permanently optimize the omniversal.com site for users.

Google analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service that is provided by Google Inc. ('Google'). Google Analytics uses 'cookies' (text files that are placed on your computer) to help analyse how users use your site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be passed to Google and stored on servers in the United States. Google uses this information to monitor how you use the website, report on website activity to website operators and offer other services in relation to website activity and internet usage. Google may provide this information to third parties if Google is legally obliged to do so, or in the event that third parties process this information for Google. Google will not combine your IP address with other details that Google has in its possession. You can refuse cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in your browser. We would like to point out, however, that you may not be able to use all of the website facilities. Using this website implies that you permit the information to be processed by Google for the objectives set out above.
